Consistency

Definition. A system of linear equations is consistent if it has a solution

It is inconsistent if it has no solutions

Question

give an example of a 2D system of linear equations with no solutions

Can two lines intersect at more than one point?